The DPA & GDPR May 2018

We, and this website, complies to the DPA (Data Protection Act 1998) and already complies to the GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation) which came into effect from May 2018.

Donations/Payments:

We use card payments, Paypal, Google and Apple Pay for taking payments/donations via our Wix website. For donations, Wix holds personal details including name, email and a transaction ID.

Bookings:

We use Eventbrite (A ticketing and event registration platform) for booking an event and taking payments collecting personal details and billing details.

Registrations and Information Updates:

We use Typeform for data collection including referrals, registrations and surveys.

Newsletter Subscription:

Users can subscribe to our newsletter directly via our website and also via subscribe button on event bookings on Eventbrite. Data from both added to Mail Chimp, where it is stored.

Website Visitor Tracking

This website uses tracking software to monitor its visitors to better understand how they use it. The software will save a cookie to your browsing device in order to track and monitor your engagement and usage of the website, but will not store, save or collect personal information.

Use of Cookies

This website uses cookies to better the users experience while visiting the website. As required by legislation, where applicable this website uses a cookie control system, allowing the user to give explicit permission or to deny the use of/saving of cookies on their computer/device.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small files saved to the user's browsing device that track, save and store information about the user's interactions and usage of the website. This allows the website, through its server to provide the users with a tailored experience within this website by reading your cookies data stored on your device.

Users are advised that if they wish to deny the use and saving of cookies from this website on to their computers hard drive they should take necessary steps within their web browsers security settings to block all cookies from this website and its external serving vendors or use the cookie control system if available upon their first visit.

Downloads & Media Files

Any downloadable documents, files or media made available on this website are provided to users at their own risk. While all precautions have been undertaken to ensure only genuine downloads are available users are advised to verify their authenticity using third party antivirus software or similar applications.

We accept no responsibility for third party downloads and downloads provided by external third party websites and advise users to verify their authenticity using third party anti-virus software or similar applications.

Disclaimer on our website:

While care has been taken in assembling this website, the statements contained herein are believed to be accurate. However, The Lloyd Park Children's Charity assumes no liability for any loss, damage, or inconvenience arising from inaccuracies. We make no express or implied warranties regarding the quality, accuracy, or completeness of the information provided.

To the extent permitted by law, we exclude all liability for loss or damage—whether direct, indirect, or consequential—resulting from your use of this website or any information or omissions therein. Additionally, we cannot control the content of external pages maintained by other providers or organisations accessible through our site.

Please note that the listing of external products and services does not necessarily imply endorsement by The Lloyd Park Children's Charity. If you identify any errors or outdated information, please contact our team via email to lpc@tlpcc.org.uk

Contact & Communication with us

Users contacting us through this website do so at their own discretion and provide any such personal details requested at their own risk. Your personal information is kept private and stored securely until a time it is no longer required or has no use.

Where we have clearly stated and made you aware of the fact, and where you have given your express permission, we may use your details to send you products/services information through a mailing list system. This is done in accordance with the GDPR regulations.

Email Mailing List & Marketing Messages

We operate an email mailing list program, used to inform subscribers about products, services and/or news we supply/publish. Users can subscribe through an online automated process (Typeform or Microsoft Forms) where they have given their explicit permission. Subscriber personal details are collected, processed, managed and stored in accordance with the regulations named in 'The policy' above. Subscribers can unsubscribe at any time through an automated online service, or if not available, other means as detailed in the footer of sent marketing messages. The type and content of marketing messages subscribers receive, and if it may contain third party content, is clearly outlined at the point of subscription. Email marketing messages may contain tracking beacons/tracked clickable links or similar server technologies in order to track subscriber activity within email marketing messages.

Where used, such marketing messages may record a range of subscriber data relating to engagement, geographic, demographics and already stored subscriber data.

Our EMS (email marketing service) provider is Mailchimp and you can read their privacy policy in the resources section.

External Website Links & Third Parties

Where we provide links to websites of other organisations, this privacy notice does not cover how that organisation processes personal information. We encourage you to read the privacy notices on the other websites you visit

Shortened URL's; URL shortening is a technique used on the web to shorten URL's (Uniform Resource Locators) to something substantially shorter. This technique is especially used in social media and looks similar to this (example: <http://bit.ly/zyVUBo>). Users should take caution before clicking on shortened URL links and verify their authenticity before proceeding.

We cannot guarantee or verify the contents of any externally linked website despite our best efforts. Users should therefore note they click on external links at their own risk and we cannot be held liable for any damages or implications caused by visiting any external links mentioned.

Social Media Policy & Usage

We adopt a Social Media Policy to ensure our Charity and our staff conduct themselves accordingly online. While we may have official profiles on social media platforms users are advised to verify authenticity of such profiles before engaging with, or sharing information with such profiles. We will never ask for user passwords or personal details on social media platforms.

There may be instances where our website features social sharing buttons, which help share web content directly from web pages to the respective social media platforms. You use social sharing buttons at your own discretion and accept that doing so may publish content to your social media profile feed or page. You can find further information about some social media privacy and usage policies in the resources section below.

Questions & Concerns

If you have any questions or comments, or if you want to update, delete, or change any Personal Information we hold, or you have a concern about the way in which we have handled any privacy matter, please contact us to send us a message. You may also contact us by email at: lpc@tlpcc.org.uk
